Conference Scholarship Information and Application Instructions

Conference Tuition Scholarships have been generously donated by corporate sponsors and are being made available to state university students of Indian Law and American Indian studies, as well as employees of non-profit legal services and legal aid.

To apply, please send your request on your employer's letterhead, stating the reason for your interest, along with the completed scholarship application form to the ILP IGRA Scholarship Committee, address below. The application form is available on the conference website at www.law.asu.edu/ILP. Students must submit a copy of their student ID card.

1. Scholarships will apply toward conference registration fees only. (Individuals receiving scholarships are responsible for the all other costs of attending the conference.)
2. A completed Scholarship Application (attached) must be received by the ILP Scholarship Committee by September 1, 2008.
3. Employees of non-profit legal services and legal aid must forward a Statement of Need (letter) on their respective letterhead. This must accompany the completed Scholarship Application.
4. State university students must the complete the Scholarship Application as well as the Statement of Need portion of the application and attach a legible copy of their student I.D. for the current term or a copy of their current course schedule confirming their status for the current term.
5. A written reply from the ILP IGRA Scholarship Committee will be sent no later than September 30, 2008, by email or mail. Scholarship recipients must bring this email or letter to the conference in order to be admitted. Please contact the ILP, info below, if a reply has not received by that date.
6. Scholarships will not be granted retroactively and applications will not be considered after the deadline.
7. All applications must be accompanied by a $25.00 non-refundable application fee. Applicants may pay by check or credit card. Credit Cards applications may be faxed. Any applications submitted without the fee will not be placed under consideration.

The ILP IGRA Scholarship Committee will endeavor to award as many scholarships as possible, subject to space and other limitations. Scholarship applicants are urged to apply early.
